You must return the Electronic Monitoring Arrest (EM-HA) equipment provided by the FJD within (10) days of the termination of your electronic supervision. If you fail to do so, or if the electronic monitoring equipment is damaged when returned, you will be assessed the cost of repair or replacement. While the replacement cost may increase, the cost as of January 2021 is as follows: RF Patrol Transceiver (PTX): $250; RF Patrol Home Monitoring Unit (HMU): $600; and BA/RT Unit (Breathalyzer): $500.

You are NOT permitted to leave your home without permission from APPD.

You must submit all time-out requests through written verification at least two (2) business days prior to your intended travel.

You are NOT permitted to touch, move, or damage the electronic monitoring equipment.

You must maintain electrical services in your home at all times.

If you plan on moving, you must submit your request in writing to APPD, and you must be approved by APPD before you move.

If you have a job, you must submit written verification of your current (legal) employment and your work schedule. You must provide a pay stub to APPD at every office visit.

If you miss any scheduled work, you must immediately notify your APPD officer. If you stop working or change jobs, you must immediately notify your APPD officer.

If you have an emergency which requires you to leave your house unscheduled, you must call the Emergency Line and you will be required to provide documentation to prove where you were. An emergency could include a medical emergency; fire, gas leak, or other event making the residence unsafe to remain within; a government ordered evacuation; or other events placing your physical safety at imminent risk.

To obtain a G.E.D.

Defendant is allowed out for medical appointments.

Defendant is allowed out on Fridays for religious services between the hours of 11am to 2pm.

The defendant is not eligible for a re-entry plan.
